POLITICAL.

REPUBLICAN STATE PLATFORM.

Resolved, That the honor and glory of the Republic, its continued peace, prosperity and progress will be the best served by the perpetuation and continued success of the Republican party. We declare our fidelity to its principles as expressed in the Chicago platform of 1880, and as further embodied in its great history from its organization to the present time.

Resolved, That in the tragic death of President Garfield our country has suffered a deplorable loss, and the Republican party mourns for one who consecrated a noble and heroic life to the vindication of its great purposes.

Resolved, That we have faith in the prudent and sagacious administration of President Arthur and believe it will result in promoting the best interests of the country.

Resolved, That the presence in our midst of a servile race of aliens, incapable of assimilation with our institutions, is a perpetual menace to all classes of society. The relief extended to our people by the passage of a law excluding the Chinese by a Republican Congress and approved by a Republican President, is a genuine cause of satisfaction. We are in favor of strenuously enforcing the provisions of said law, and we pledge the Republican party to labor now and hereafter to secure such further legislation as will permanently exclude the Chinese.

Resolved, That we recognize the paramount importance of maintaining and improving the free public school system of the State. We shall defend it against sectarian, political or other improper influences, and we favor such additional legislation as the condition and wants of the common schools of the State may require. As free institutions they should be conducted as to satisfy poor and rich alike, and upon this principle we urge the adoption of some system by which this State shall furnish the text books at the lowest possible figure.

Resolved, That owing to the remote position of Nevada from the seaboard and the entire absence of navigable waters and competing lines of railroads to and from commercial centers we demand from Congress such whole and effective legislation as will place our people on terms of equality in respect to transportation charges with communities specially favored by railroad monopolies.

Resolved, That we pledge the Republican party of Nevada to such a course of enlightened legislation as will extend to railroad and all other corporations doing business in the State the same protection and the same rights before the law as are accorded to individuals—no more and no less.

And further, that the Republican party favors and demands, at the hands of the State Legislature, legislation regulating and equalizing freight and rates on all railroads within the State.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the Government of the United States establishing a postal telegraph service, and operating the same in connection with the Postoffice Department.

Resolved, That the coverage of railroads should be placed upon the same basis as that of gold, and we invoke early Congressional legislation to that end.

Resolved, That it is the duty of the Legislature to enact such laws as will result in the purification of the jury box and better promote the administration of justice.

Resolved, That it is the duty of the next Legislature to pass such laws as shall reduce the expenses of the State and county governments to the lowest possible limit consistent with the requirements of the public service.

Resolved, That the earnest attention of Congress and the State Legislature is directed to the subject of codifying the laws relating to the location and working of mineral lands to the end that legitimate prospecting and the development of our chief source of wealth may be best promoted.

Resolved, That the appropriation by a Republican Congress for the payment of pensions to Invalid Union soldiers and to the veterans of the Mexican war is the discharge of a debt of honor and law—a generous remembrance of our country's defenders in its supreme hour of peril.

Resolved, That in the judgment of this Convention the Legislature, when next convened, should make the necessary provisions for a convention to revise the entire constitution of this State. That in providing for such convention the State should guarantee the necessities of the times, and among other things the following cogent reasons:—First—to so change the fundamental law as to secure as nearly as may be equal and uniform taxation of all property; second—to provide for the regulation and control of all railroads doing business in this State to the end that the tendency of the times, and among other things, to secure the reduction of the rates of the State to the minimum by disposing with all unnecessary offices and employees; third—to provide for the collection of the revenue of public lands, the collection of the law and the general administration of justice.

COUNTY PLATFORM.

Resolved, That this Convention endorse the platform adopted by the Republican State convention held at Reno on the 14th day of September, 1882.

Resolved, That the Republican party of Washoe county heartily endorse the nominees of the Republican State Convention from Governor to State Printer as subject to recall and liable to recall.

Resolved, That the Republican party of Washoe county in their opinion justify and support the action of the State Convention in electing a Republican Governor, and that they will support the Republican party of the State in the election of a Republican Governor.

Resolved, That the Republican party of Washoe county in their opinion justify and support the action of the State Convention in electing a Republican Governor, and that they will support the Republican party of the State in the election of a Republican Governor.

THE TRUE RACKET.

The Democratic party, "true to its time-honored custom," on the eve of each recurring election, is now engaged in private conversation, through its press and on the stump, clamoring for "railroad reform." In view of this fact it will be of interest to voters to examine the Democratic record on this important question and compare that with its profession. At the last session of the Nevada Legislature the House stood 43 Democrats and 7 Republicans. The first Act introduced at that session effecting railroads was one to reduce the rate of freight from twenty cents per ton per mile to ten cents, and passenger rates from ten cents per mile to five cents. On the final passage of this bill it failed by a vote of 20 in the affirmative to 21 in the negative. Among the number voting in the negative were two gentlemen who are now prominent Democratic candidates for office: Mr. Geo. Ernst, candidate on the Democratic ticket for Surveyor-General, and T. J. Bell, Democratic candidate for the Assembly in Nye county. [See Journal of Assembly, 10 session, page 255.]

The next proposition was an Act to regulate fares and freights on local roads in this State, and making a material reduction in the rates charged. On the affirmative and 20 in the negative—final passage of this Act there were 25 in failing to pass, as will be seen, by one vote, 26 being a constitutional majority. Voting against the passage of this bill we again find the names of George Ernst and T. J. Bell, either one of whom, it will be seen, could have secured the passage of the bill by voting in the affirmative. [See Journal Assembly, 10 session, page 277.]

On page 291 of the same Journal we find Assembly bill 132, an Act to establish and fix the rates on railroads whose lines run through the State of Nevada, having especial reference to the Central Pacific, making a material reduction in the rates charged by that road. This Act, on motion of Mr. Moriarity, Democratic member from Storey, was indefinitely postponed by a large majority.

Still further along and toward the close of the session, the anti-railroad element brought forward Assembly bill 145, an Act to regulate freights and fares on all railroads within the State. This bill was also indefinitely postponed. [See page 303 same Journal.]

Thus ended the railroad war in the Assembly at the 10th session of the Nevada Legislature, composed, as before stated, of 43 Democrats and 7 Republicans.

A MODERN SOPHIST.

At the Theatre Thursday night, Cassidy proved conclusively that the Republican party, as such, did nothing during its twenty-six years reign that is worthy of mention. And succeeded in establishing the fact to the apparent satisfaction of himself, and perhaps others, that the late civil war was fought to a successful termination and the Union preserved in all its glory by the Democratic party, and that the Republicans in that memorable conflict acted as a sort of back-action to that glorious old party of "progress and reform." Such men as Seward, Sumner, Wade, Chase, Wilson, Morton, Thad Stephens and Lincoln were but pygmies compared to such Union loving giants as Valauingham, Seymour, Jere Black, Fernando, Wood, Blair, McClellan, Oakley Hall, Hancock, Tweed' and other brilliant exponents of Democratic principles.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

O. S. Preble, our candidate for Surveyor General, was in Austin a few days ago, and the Democratic paper in that town says he is a pleasant, affable gentleman, a practical surveyor of large experience, and will, if elected, doubtless do his work well. We have to look through the bars of the political fence in order to get a glimpse of him, but from what we could see in that way he is a good fellow.

Sammy Tilden is said to be sinking fast, his limbs are tottering and his faculties failing. But if the truly good old man could only read his title clear to that mansion in Washington, the draught of political power would rejuvenate him as thoroughly as it did Richelieu when there passed through his withered frame the might of France.

Davitt, speaking at Greenock, England, on Thursday night, announced that he was visiting the Highlands and the Isle of Skye for the purpose of becoming acquainted with the case of Rafter. He denied that anybody connected with the Land League had anything to do with the action of the tenant farmers in the Highlands.

In Wisconsin there is a Democratic candidate for Congress named D. H. Sumner. A few years ago he was a Republican and then said that "the Democratic party was made up of horse-thieves and other disreputable characters." It is the violent and untruthful partisans who are most apt to flop.

The Soteldo case commenced in Washington yesterday. The Government and defense together have summoned 92 witnesses. The defense will claim that Soteldo was killed by a bullet from the pistol which has never been recovered, and that young Soteldo did not fire the pistol.

The jury in the Scoville insanity case at Chicago declared Mrs. Scoville insane. When the verdict was read the Court room was crowded. Mrs. Scoville was not in the Court room and cannot be found. Her lawyer and son declare they know nothing of her whereabouts.

In the last Utah Legislature there were only three members who were not polygamists. If, as expected, no polygamists dare to be candidates for the new Legislature to be elected next month, it will hardly be fair to say the Edmunds bill has accomplished nothing.

The false prophet is said to be within three days march of Kartoum. He was only about a week away from it, according to all accounts, six months ago. We fear the Associated Press is badly mixing up Soudan matters.

Henry Clay once said there were two things God Almighty did not know: The probable result of a trial by jury, and the result of an election until after the ballots were counted.

BREVITIES.

The fire boys were out for practice Saturday.

C. C. Powning arrived home from the east Sunday night.

The greater part of the burnt district in Truckee is to be rebuilt immediately.

Chs. H. Ball, Long Valley, C. Behr, of Truckee, are stopping at the Pollard House.

Judge Leonard came in from the east last night and went on through to Carson.

Charley Moeller, the popular landlord of the Steamboat Springs Hotel, was in town yesterday.

Cap. Matt Canavan continues to improve and his physicians say he will be as well as ever in a week or two.

Mrs. S. M. Drannan is extremely sick with the typhoid fever. Her many friends hope for her speedy recovery.

Alfred Jose has boldly shied his castor into the local political ring, announcing himself as "our next Constable."

S. B. Morey, San Francisco, is registered at Chamberlains. Wonder if he isn't some relation to Simon pure "Morey?"

The Truckee Republican figures up the losses in that town by the late fire at $107,500, on which there is $31,700 insurance.

Last evening was Hollow Eve, and yet the people were so absorbed in political and other matters that few were aware of the fact.

The wind has been blowing a gale for 36 hours and will probably end with a rain or snow storm. If it does not it will be an exception to the rule.

Dr. L. L. Morey, of Vandalia, Illinois, is visiting his cousin Dr. Bishop, here in Reno, and catching his first glimpse of western sights and manners.

Gov. Woods, Republican candidate for Congress in the Fourth District, Cal., passed through Reno last evening en route from Bodie to San Francisco.

W. D. C. Gibson, of Gold Hill, W. V., Booth, of Austin, J. G. Chesley, San Francisco, J. F. Hallock, Carson, and E. S. Benham, of Virginia, are sojourning at the Depot Hotel.

Antone Attinger died at Lovelocks last Friday of pneumonia. He was sick but a few days. Last Summer his wife died after a brief illness, and their only child died a year or two ago.

The Carson river is said to be literally crowded with cord wood, and much of it will have to remain in the river all winter, unless the water raises so as to float it down to Empire or Dayton.

Two car loads of Candelaria ore was unloaded at the depot this morning. This ore is being landed here at the rate of about fifteen tons per day, sufficient to keep the Auburn mill in constant motion.

There have been no open-air political meetings as yet in Reno during this campaign, but to-morrow night there will be a torch-light procession by the Republicans of Reno, which will give things the old-time political aspect.

James H. Borland, well known in Reno, in addition to being agent for the railroad company at Martinez, is also Secretary and Superintendent of a telephone company whose lines extend from Martinez to Contra Costa.

L. J. Flint received a $600 gold brick yesterday from the Venture mine in Esmeralda county. The mine is owned and operated by Reno people. Their little five-stamp mill is kept constantly running, and best of all, never fails to pay.

C. R. Wickes has resigned his place on the Republican ticket for School Trustee and the vacancy has been filled by W. H. Gould. Mr. Wickes has accepted a position on the California & Oregon Railroad, and will leave Reno to-night with his family. Sorry to lose so valuable a citizen.

H. Neigh left Reno about a month ago for Leadville with a view of engaging in the butcher business. He returned Sunday night fully satisfied to let the Leadville country alone. Leadville, he says, is a pretty lively place just now, but he believes Reno a better town to tie to, so has come back to stay.

A young man by the name of Charles T. Troupe came to Reno from San Francisco about a week ago in search of health, being in the last stages of consumption. The change of climate did not have the beneficial effect hoped for. He continued to fail rapidly and died yesterday morning. His wife and mother were telegraphed for, and arrived a few moments before his death. The remains will be taken to Vancouver for interment.

PHENOMENAL HUNTING!

A Trip Over the N. & O. R. R.

The N. & O. R. R. is now completed to Oneida, thirty miles from Reno, and affords one of the most pleasurable Sunday trips to be found anywhere around Reno. It having been learned that game was abundant at various points along the line, a company of gallant nimrods was made up last Sunday, and with many promises of presents of game to admiring friends, the train departed at 10:00 bearing a plentiful supply of hunters and hunting material, both solid and liquid.

THE IMPROVEMENTS ON THE ROAD.

Ever since the temporary suspension last December the energies of the management have been devoted to improving the road-bed and properly ballasting it. One who then rode over the road would now imagine he was riding over a different road entirely. The track has not only been ballasted, but the whole of the first seventeen miles have been gone over and made almost new. In accordance with the general policy of the sanctimonious, long-haired Thomas that section had been built with an eye greater to speedy construction than genuinely solid building, for it was necessary that the pious gentleman should speedily seize the coin on construction mortgage bonds, which his saintly fingers were burning and itching after. As a result the greater part of the curves on the road were execrably laid and had all to be gone over again. The trestles have been carefully looked after and a comfortable passenger coach put on the line, so that it is no wonder that parties who have been traveling by stage over many weary miles hail the Narrow Gauge station at Oneida with hearty delight.

SCENES ALONG THE ROUTE.

One of the great elements of cost, especially in the first ten miles, are the numerous high, long and costly trestles that were necessary. From the time after turning the curve near the slaughter house as far as trestle number three, a magnificent panorama of Reno and the whole valley, is spread in view with enchanting effect. The English Mill, the various astounding curves, the sites of the various construction camps and springs along the route, occupy ones attention till the train reaches the famous five-mile cut. It will be recollected how gladly Moore was received in Reno and with what enthusiasm he was assisted until the people saw that it was all turkey and no bazzard for Moore, then they soared on him, and the five-mile point represents the climax of popular enthusiasm just before the pull of doubt spread over the enterprise. On the day when the five-mile point was reached, a regular excursion party was made up and the cars transported them to that point of the road; a regular festival was held, and champagne corks popped high and low. The big bugs and solid men of Reno generally were on hand in full force and nobody dreamed of near disaster ahead. To mark the festivity spot and the occasion, an empty champagne bottle was attached to a sign board up the side of the cut, and it remains intact to the present day. The Summit is the next point of interest reached, and from this point can be distinctly traced the two other survey lines on which it was proposed to run the road instead of its present line. One of these runs to the right of the English Mill and up the cauyons. It needed no trestle works, but required an immense tunnel half a mile long. The other route leads up the canyon near Evans' field. Though shorter, it was found that a great number of trestles would be needed, so the middle course was chosen. From Reno to the Summit was entirely up a grade very steep and heavy, but when that point was reached everything was down hill. From this point, too, the road became more civilized and abandoned its tortuous character, which make it deserve the name of the "crookedest road in the world." Quite a number of long stretches of straight track are traversed in view of Peavine and Lemmon's ranch. When Cold Springs are reached a fine view of the dry lakes is obtained. They are a perfect specimen of the minges which lured so many famishing, thirst-tortured emigrants to terrible death. Were the appearance at a distance of water to be the only deception it would not be very odd or wonderful; but over the whole of the dry bed floats a mist exactly resembling the scene of a sheet of water on a foggy morning, which is caused by the lightest wind lifting the alkali flour covering the surface. This is one of the most interesting sights along the road. Cold Springs is the only watering place after leaving Reno, and furnishes excellent water, which is led from the springs up the mountain side down to a large tank alongside the track. From here to Chat Roberts' and Dave Evans' at Oneida, is six miles, when the head of Long Valley is reached. This is one of the oldest settled valleys in the State and wonderfully fertile.

ONEIDA STATION.

A handsome large passenger and freight depot has been built at this point. It stands about 150 feet west of Dave Evans' hotel and alongside the track. Though long known as Antelope on account of there being another Antelope in the State, and being desirous of having a postoffice, the people named the place after the township Oneida. After the arrival of the train, teams began to pull up at the Depot Hotel in great numbers, awaiting the mail. The Antelope mine and works are about three and a half miles from the station and it is rumored that the railroad company will soon build a branch line to the mine, from which they are guaranteed plenty of ore every day. Bragg's saw mill is also only a few miles distant and every day furnishes two car loads of lumber for transportation to Reno.

GAME IN THE SECTION.

About eight miles from Oneida is a canyon that looks to be only two miles off and is heavily timbered, and it being reported that game was absolutely dying of ennui, thither the Reno nimrods wended their way. After a jaunt of six hours, they returned, having succeeded in meeting a bear and two deer. Owing to the great distance, the warm weather and cumbersome burdens, etc., they did not carry these back with them, merely contenting themselves with taking fine photographs of them, which all lovers of sport can see by inquiring at the Lake House. It was deemed advisable to do this as some scoffers might sneer; but now the photographs will prove to be the best testimony. No quail nor grouse were seen, they having fled to the mountains at the first signs of the late storm. One small rabbit was brought home however as a curiosity in natural history. At Last Chance, thirty miles from Oneida, deer and small game are said to be swarming. Near Bragg's mill they are also comparatively plenty.

A FINE PLEASURE TRIP.

No more enjoyable trip could be taken. The train travels at a higher rate of speed than the average C. P., and skims along like a bird. Between now and the tenth the new locomotive is expected. It will be a twenty-ton engine with 44-inch drivers, whereas the present one is nine tons and only 32-inch drivers. In a little while the company intends offering special rates to picnic or hunting parties.

A First-Rate Petition.

A part of the citizens have at last aroused to action. After having been burnt out two or three times, patience has at last ceased to be a virtue and they have decided to raise a ruction in accordance with the constitution of the United States and the Silver State. The people of east Virginia street who were so lately visited by fire have profited by the lesson, and taken it to heart, and if their example is only imitated by the property owners and holders of Reno, the danger of fire will be greatly abated. Mr. Needham, living opposite the scene of the late fire was yesterday traversing Reno with a petition and ordinance, drawn up by a first-class lawyer, which he presented throughout town for signatures. It called upon the Commissioners to enact a laundry ordinance confining all public laundries within certain limits east of East street. Inasmuch as the only white public laundry is in the outskirts of the town, there could be no pretext for any Federal Judge upsetting this ordinance on the ground of anti-Chinese prejudice. Let all responsible men of Reno sign it and keep the ball rolling.

Frank Mayo in "Davy Crockett."

Frank Mayo, with a strong company, including Miss Charlotte Behrens, will appear at the Nevada Theatre next Friday evening, Nov. 3d, in "Davy Crockett," the title character of which Mr. Mayo has been so long identified with, that it has become almost second nature with him to play it. It has been his favorite for twelve years, during which time he has accumulated a fortune by producing it throughout the country. Everything connected with the presentation of the play is strictly first-class.

Unfortunate Truckee.

The fire at Truckee Friday night destroyed a large portion of the business center of the town, and in many instances the losses are very heavy, and in most cases the insurance was very light. This is a serious blow to Truckee, the more so because of the fact that all the buildings destroyed have been constructed since last big fire, and in some instances the paint was hardly dry upon them. Unfortunate Truckee, the fates seem to be against her.

Fine Weather for Ducks.

The short respite of Indian Summer was too good to last long, and old Boreas is around already with his squalls and meanings. The local Vennor of Reno predicts that inside of a week a terrific storm will desolate the valley, most likely on election day. Everything points that way, and the streets are already beginning to play a matinee with the dust, much to the upsetting of the temper of Reno's business men.

The ladies all think the Royal Sewing Machines for sale by Osburn & Shoemaker are just perfection. They turn either way and sew straight along—run easy and noiseless. Go and see them by all means.

Angora Goats.

Mr. Hash, of the firm of Shoemaker & Hash, shipped yesterday to California two fine Angora goats of the highest grade. They will be used in grading the fleeces of the consignee, and from the length and character of their fleeces will enhance by many per cent. the market value and quality of the wool grown from their progeny. This is an industry that should be cultivated in the whole of Nevada, but of which, unfortunately, too little is known. While cattle and sheep have made the fortunes of men who embarked in the business a few years ago, but very little has been attempted in the way of growing Angora wool. This fleece commands the highest price, and a fine field is offered right in this valley and the environs. Messrs. Hash & Shoemaker have set a good example which might be copied with profit and advantage.

Excited and Unlucky Hunters.

The Silver State tells of a party of hunters who left Winnemucca a few days ago on a duck slaughtering expedition to the sink of the Humboldt. The party camped at the head of the lake and at night the air resounded with the gobbling of geese and the squawking of ducks, and the hunters, who had gone to bed early so as to be in good trim for the morrow, decided to get up and commence the slaughter of ducks and geese by moonlight. They dressed in a hurry and commenced firing at the fowls, which were continually flying at low range over their heads and kept it up until they had exhausted their ammunition and the worst of it all was that they had to eat bacon for breakfast next morning, as they killed neither duck nor goose.

Teachers' Institute.

The Teachers' State Institute closed last Saturday after a week of successful, instructive and pleasurable meetings. A good proportion of counties in the State were represented by their several teachers, and notwithstanding the various other attractions of the week there was a constant attendance of interested outsiders. The lectures given, essays read, and lively consultations that took place regarding different styles of instruction, methods of discipline, grading of schools and studies to be assigned to each department, etc., etc., were all interesting and worthy of attention. Beneficial results will no doubt be apparent in the near future.

A Needed Improvement.

The fine new granite curbstones have arrived from Carson for the Court House fence, and Mr. Murphy, the contractor, is busily engaged setting them in place. There is only one flaw in the looks of the Court House, and that is caused by the ditch running through the grounds and fence, thus preventing the continuance of the curb in front, so necessary to the symmetrical appearance of the entire front. It is rumored that the Board of Commissioners will take a look into the matter and adopt means whereby the symmetry and grace of the whole front will not be destroyed.

Dave Evans' Ball.

Next Friday night there will be the jolliest and most sociable dance ever occurring in Long Valley. It will be given by Dave Evans, and he will entertain guests from Reno and all the surrounding country. Don't fail to miss the fun, for it will be a grand treat. The N. & O. train will leave Reno at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon, and returning will leave the Antelope House at 5 A. M. Saturday. For full particulars see ad. in another column.

Approaching Completion.

The brick building of A. Jose near Kimball's Hall is nearly approaching completion. It will be finished with every convenience, the soda factory being down stairs and the upper story devoted to offices and living rooms. Its completion will remove a long standing eye sore and transform it into a fine business edifice.

War in Carson.

Sam P. Davis, editor of the Carson Appeal, assaulted Judge Harris, of the Index, Saturday evening in front of the old Theater hall with a cane, and dealt him several blows over the head, felling him to the ground. The trouble evidently grew out of a newspaper controversy which has been going on between those two papers for some time.

The Democratic candidates for county offices, eight or ten strong, congregated at Steamboat last Sunday. They found Tom Hymers there alone, and would probably have annihilated him and the whole Republican party had it not been for the timely arrival of General Davis, who, with the stalwart landlord, managed to stand them off.

A COUGH, COLD OR SORE THROAT should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years Brown's Bronchial Troches have been recommended by physicians, and always give perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25c. a box everywhere.
